

NILE UNIVERSITY

NU is the first research, Non Profit “Ahleya” university in Egypt .
It was inaugurated in 2007 as a world-class, internationally recognized education and research University.

Business School is seeking to hire:

Full time Teaching Assistants in Accounting, Management, Marketing, Finance and Supply Chain to start in the Fall 2018.

NU Business School’s (NUBS) mission is to contribute to the sustainable economic and social development of Egypt and the region by developing innovative, highly qualified, and socially responsible leaders. We accomplish this mission by embracing critical thinking, innovation, and entrepreneurial spirit as a way of life among our students and faculty, attracting world-class faculty with outstanding record in research and teaching combined with global and corporate expertise, promoting a research-friendly environment for faculty and students and fostering collaborations with world-leading business schools and with the local, regional, and international business community.

NUBS invites qualified TA to apply for the full time posts in Accounting, Management, Marketing, Finance and Supply Chain.

Successful applicants should have a BSc. from a reputed University with Very Good Degree.

Interested applicants are requested to submit the following materials:

Detailed CV highlighting experience as per the above stated requirements.
Names and contact information of three references (email address/phone)
Deadline for receiving applications is July 15, 2018.

All requested materials should be sent to aattia@nu.edu.eg and please put in the subject job title (Business School TA)

For More information

www.nu.edu.eg/careers